PRESBYTERY OF PHILADELPHIA.

Extract from the Minutes of the Synod of Pennsylvania, October 17th, 1891.

Nos. 5 and 6. Overtures from the Presbyteries of Philadelphia and Philadelphia Central, asking the Synod to unite the two Presbyteries in one.

It is recommended that this joint request be granted, and that the Presbyteries of Philadelphia and Philadelphia Central be consolidated into one Presbytery, to be called the Presbytery of Philadelphia, which shall include the ministers and churches in the city of Philadelphia south of Erie Avenue and Nicetown Lane; this action to take effect from and after the second Tuesday (the eighth day) of December next. The Presbytery thus constituted is hereby declared to be the legal successor of the present Presbyteries of Philadelphia and Philadelphia Central, and as such entitled to the possession and enjoyment of all the rights and franchises, and liable to the performance of all the duties of those Presbyteries. The Presbytery of Philadelphia, as thus constituted, shall meet on the second Tuesday of December, A. D. 1891, at 8 o'clock P. M., in the Calvary Church, Philadelphia, and shall be opened with a sermon by the Rev. J. Addison Henry, D. D. The Rev. William Blackwood, D. D., LL. D. (or, in his absence, the Rev. J. Addison Henry, D. D., or, in the absence of both, the oldest minister present), shall preside until a Moderator be elected. Adopted.

The Presbytery of Philadelphia, as thus constituted, met at the time and place directed, the Rev. William Blackwood, D. D., LL. D., presiding, and was opened with a sermon by the Rev. J. Addison Henry, D. D., from Matthew xxi. 28: "Son, go work to-day in my vineyard." It embraces in its territory all that part of the city and county of Philadelphia lying south of Erie Avenue and Nicetown Lane.

The Chairman of these Committees respectively shall communicate with every non-contributing Church, and use diligent efforts to secure from every Church a collection for the cause committed to its care.

4. Church Extension, Property, and Charters.

This Committee shall consist of twenty-four members, nine of whom shall be Ministers and fifteen of whom shall be Ruling Elders. It shall be divided into three classes, one of which shall be elected each year, for the term of three years, and each class shall be composed of three Ministers and five Ruling Elders. When vacancies occur they shall be filled by the Committee, subject to the approval of Presbytery.

It shall be the business of this Committee to study the wants of our denomination in each of its parts and how to strengthen it as a whole; to secure, if possible, a field for every Church and a Church for every field within the Presbytery. It shall prosecute its work in accordance with a deliberate and comprehensive plan; shall fully instruct Church Sessions and congregations in regard to that plan, and labor to gain the sympathy and co-operation of all our people.

This Committee shall advise Churches to consolidate wherever consolidation would be likely to promote the common interest. It shall encourage Churches that are not well placed, and are languishing in consequence, to move to other more promising locations. It shall assist struggling Churches in growing neighborhoods to obtain adequate buildings for religious work and worship.

This Committee, at its discretion, shall have the oversight of all Churches and Missions within the bounds of the Presbytery requiring aid for the support of their Pastors or Supplies other than those under the care of the Synodical Home Missions and Sustentation Committee.

This Committee shall also select or approve sites for new Churches; shall examine titles to property; shall see that the charters of proposed organizations are properly drawn; shall collect and disburse moneys for Church extension under authority of Presbytery, and present an annual report as directed by Rule 3, prescribing general duties of Standing Committees.

It shall be the duty of any who wish to establish new stations for preaching or Sabbath-School purposes within the bounds of the Presbytery, first to confer with this Committee, which, having considered the subject, shall report thereon to Presbytery at its next meeting. But no such station shall be located at a distance of less than five squares from any other Church or Sabbath School of our denomination; and the same rule shall apply to any existing Church which may hereafter contemplate changing its location.

This Committee shall also have oversight of the work among seamen, and of the appropriation of the income of the Easburn Fund to that work.

This Committee shall co-operate with the Synod's Committee on Home Missions and Sustentation. It shall be the duty of the Committee to encourage all Churches within our bounds, not able wholly to support their pastors, to comply with the rules and requirements of the Synod's Committee, and to obtain assistance from the Synodical Fund. If, however, in the judgment of the Presbytery more aid be required than can be obtained under such rules, the Presbytery may supplement such aid. It shall also be the duty of this Committee to encourage all our Churches to make liberal contributions to the funds of the Synodical Committee.

9. Church Erection.

This Committee shall carefully inquire into all applications for aid from the Board; shall carry on necessary correspondence with the Board in reference to these applications; shall look after any Church property that may become involved or liable to be sold, securing the interests of the Board in such cases as have been aided by it. Other duties as defined by Rule 3, relating to Standing Committees.

10. Ministerial Relief.

This Committee shall investigate carefully every application for aid from the Board of Ministerial Relief, and report to Presbytery the facts in the case. If such application is approved, this Committee shall also send the recommendation of Presbytery to the Board of Ministerial Relief, accompanied with the reasons therefor.

For other duties of this Committee see Rule 3 of this chapter.

For other duties of this Committee see Rule 3 of this chapter.

12. Publication and Sabbath-School Work.

This Committee shall correspond with the Board in reference to its work in the Presbytery, and shall do whatever else may tend to promote the work and interests of the Board, and to secure a thorough distribution of the Board's publications within and throughout the bounds of Presbytery, and perform such other duties as are defined for Committees on other Boards by Rule 3 of this chapter.

This Committee shall also devise such measures as will promote a deeper interest in Sabbath Schools within our bounds, and render them more efficient.

13. Aid for Colleges and Academies.

It shall be the duty of this Committee to examine the reports of the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies, the action of the General Assembly or Synod with reference to the work of this Board, and educational institutions requiring aid, and report to Presbytery such facts as may require attention, and in general to comply with Rule 3 respecting the duties of Standing Committees.

16. Committee on Young People's Societies.

It shall be the duty of this Committee to collect and report to Presbytery information concerning young people's societies in the Churches within the Presbytery, to ascertain and tabulate from time to time facts of interest concerning the different kinds of work carried on and the amount of contributions for local or general benevolent causes under the care of the General Assembly, Synod, or Presbytery, and to have a general supervision for the encouragement and development of organized effort on the part of our young people throughout the Presbytery. The Committee shall report to the October meeting.

17. Systematic Beneficence.

It shall be the duty of this Committee to present to the Presbytery such a summary of the contributions of the Churches and Sabbath Schools under the care of Presbytery as shall enable it to see what the Churches and Sabbath Schools are doing for the Boards of the Church, and to suggest to Presbytery any means which, in their judgment, will increase the liberality of the Churches and Sabbath Schools, and shall report at the October meeting.

18. Narratives.

This Committee shall receive the Narratives of the Churches presented to the Presbytery, consider and compile the same, and, having submitted their report to the Presbytery at the May meeting, the Stated Clerk shall transmit it to the General Assembly. This report, with additions, shall be transmitted to the Synod.

The Stated Clerk shall, early in March of each year, furnish each session with the Annual Narrative Blank adopted by the General Assembly of 1895.

In this report they shall give a complete list of the Elders of the Church, with their post-office address.

2. The Sessions of vacant Churches may properly apply for the aid of Presbytery, through the Committee on Examination and Credentials, in obtaining candidates for the pastorate, and they should by all means do so when the vacancy has been of long continuance; and no vacant Church should open its pulpit to a stranger as a candidate, and especially one not in our ecclesiastical connection, without consultation with this Committee.

3. The Sessions of vacant Churches desiring themselves to procure Supplies for their pulpits must obtain leave from Presbytery so to do. Leave may be granted for a term not exceeding three months; on the expiration of which term, should the Sessions desire a continuance of such leave, application must again be made to Presbytery, which again may grant it for the term above mentioned. No leave shall, on any application, be granted for a longer term than three months.

4. Each Session shall elect an Elder to represent them in Presbytery, and it shall be the duty of the Clerk of Session to send to the Stated Clerk of Presbytery the name of the Elder elected, and Elders so elected will be expected conscientiously to attend all the meetings of Presbytery which may be held during the time for which he has been elected to serve, and in case of his non-attendance the fact shall be presented by the Stated Clerk to the Presbytery at the meeting succeeding his election.

5. If any Session shall fail to have a representative for three consecutive meetings, the Stated Clerk shall report the fact to the Presbytery and serve a notice upon the Session not represented.

CHAPTER VI.

1. At the meeting in March a report will be required by Presbytery from all its Ministers without charge with reference to the official duties in which they have been engaged during the past year.

3. Ministers coming from other countries than Great Britain shall be received on a year's probation according to the requirements of the General Assembly, and those coming from Great Britain shall satisfy Presbytery that they have received a classical education, except in extraordinary cases, and shall be examined in all other respects the same as in the case of a licentiate, and shall answer the first seven constitutional questions directed to be asked of candidates for the ministry at the time of licensure.
